Notes on Claim Procedure

1. Accidental Emergency Medical Expenses

- If the Insured is admitted to the Hospital Network as an in-patient due to accidental bodily injury, the Insured is allowed to waive any hospital admission deposit provided that he/she presents a valid Emergency Card to hospital for examination, the Company will settle the relevant medical expenses to the Hospital Network directly. Nevertheless, the Insured shall be responsible for the payment of all medical expenses which exceed the maximum benefit or are not covered in this Policy.
- If the Insured is admitted to the Hospital Network as an out-patient due to accidental bodily injury or he cannot produce the Emergency Card, the Insured needs to pay the emergency medical expenses and thereafter submit direct to the Company a completed claim form as provided by the Company within 30 days after discharge from the hospital, together with original payment receipts with detailed breakdown of expenses from the Hospital Network, and original medical certificate issued by the attending medical practitioner and original report issued by the official authorities concerned or evidence of the alleged accident.

- All first treatment for bodily injury must be attended by a medical practitioner at the Hospital Network in Mainland China.

2. Personal Accident

The Company should be informed of the incident which gives rise to a claim within 30 days after the occurrence of the incident in writing and provided with supporting documents including medical reports issued by a medical practitioner giving details on the nature of the injury and the extent of disability, evidence from the official authorities concerned such as police reports and if death shall have resulted, original of the death certificate and the relevant coroner's report.

3. Personal Liability

Notify the Company as soon as possible but not later than 14 days after the occurrence of the event which gives rise to the claim. Further, the claimant is required to submit all relevant documents including copy of writs, summons, solicitor's letters and other legal correspondences.

4. Travel Document

Report to the local police within 24 hours and obtain the loss report. It is also necessary to provide the receipt of replacement cost of travel document as proof of claim.

5. Credit Card Protection

Notify the credit card centre as soon as possible within 24 hours and submit the supporting documents proving the loss.

Terms and Conditions
